

Purpose of Catholic Night at Petco

Catholic Night at Petco is an opportunity for parishioners from all over the diocese to gather however it is even a greater opportunity for evangelization. We encourage everyone to bring family and friends who have fallen away from the church. We may not be able to get them to mass but we can get them to a baseball game.

When is Catholic Night at Petco?

Friday, August 18, 2017. Game time is at 7:10 pm. The gates open at 5:00 pm for "Party in the Park". Enjoy different games and live music and food and drink specials. (This is our 3rd year)

FREE T-SHIRT with each ticket purchase

This year when you purchase your ticket through www.padres.com/catholic you will receive a free Catholic Night T-shirt. Let's show our pride in our faith together!!

Group Tickets

Many parishes have purchased group tickets to ensure parishioners sit together. For tickets purchases of 9 or more please contact Sean Nicklesen at the San Diego Padres (619) 795-5134. Additionally, parishes such as St. Brigid and Our Mother of Confidence have rented buses to transport groups to the game as parking is difficult.

Knights of Columbus

This year the Knights of Columbus will be the Color Guard for Catholic Night at Petco. Please join them in tribute to our faith and our nation.

National Anthem

Saint Brigid parishioner and Cursillista Frannie Niotta LaRussa will be singing the National Anthem.
